

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus: I want you to not forget I have a ne wittle brother and you must bring him something very nice for Christmas. And also Elizabeth. I would like a big doll as large as sister's doll. Helen and a nice book called Miss Mineiva and William Green Hill. And bring all my family a Merry Christmas; and all the poor little children in the days nursery. This is all I want but I guess you think it enough. I guess I will have to close. Your little friend Alva Meyer. With a very Merry Christmas to you to my good old friend Santa Claus.

ALVA MEYER

Dear Santa Claus: I've tried to be a nice little girl. I'm glad it is Santa Claus time. Please bring me a great big doll with blue eyes and sure-enough eyelashes, and I want it to have golden hair, a bible story book and a bounce ball. I have a little sister, two years old, her name is Dorothy Kathryn and she wants a pretty doll that goes to sleep and a doll buggy to wheel it in and bring up some nuts and candy too. I'll have my stockings hanging up on Xmas eve, and have a candle burning so you can see them. Goodbye, dear old Santa Claus.

HELEN MILLER
1405 Washington.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me some fireworks, sword, bow and arrows, house slippers, candy, nuts.

RAYMOND KAUFMAN.

Amarillo, Tex., Dec. 21, 1911.
Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a big doll, a doll buggy, a little stove and a set of dishes and some candy and apples and oranges.

Your little friend,
MYRTLE GAUT.
410 Harrison St.

P. S. Santa Claus, be sure and don't forget my little sister Mildred.

Amarillo, Tex., 12-22-11.
Dear Santa Claus: We want you to please bring us each a brown-eyed sleep-doll with brown hair, two red doll-buggies with tops, some nuts, candy and fruit. We will take good care of all these things, especially the dolls and buggies. We are six and three years old respectively, and live at 408 Houston street.

Your little friends plan of the National Monetary Commission, but he believed that the right principles of banking and currency reform were in this plan.

"In the panic of 1907," said he, "our Western banks broke down through no fault of their own. We needed a big amount of money out West to move our crops, and our bank statements showed that we had this money, that is, we had it on deposit in New York where we could not get it."

Governor Norris, of Montana, very frankly said that the present banking system was damnable. The yearly shipping of money from the West to New York and its use in Wall Street in speculation, he said, was all wrong. He was heartily in favor of such a reform of our banking and currency system as would provide for co-operation between all the banks of the country, keep the Western money at home, or at least out of speculative Wall Street, and establish more uniform interest rates over the country.

Governor Carey of Wyoming, said he was heartily in favor of a popular movement among business people whether engaged in manufacturing, merchandising or agriculture, for the reform of our panic-breeding banking system. It was not a banker's question, he said, but a question for all the people, because it was the people who suffered most from panics and a bad banking system.

Governor Vessey, of South Dakota thought that the plan of the National Monetary Commission gave a good working basis for legislation. He said that over the West a great many people were talking against this plan because it bore the name of Senator Aldrich, but he believed banking and currency reform was of too vital importance to the business interests of the country, especially those of the West, to be obscured by any discussion of personalities.

Saved His Wife's Life.
"My wife would have been in her grave today," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. BANKING REFORM PLAN MEETS FAVOR

New York, Dec. 22.—That banking and currency reform is of vital concern to the whole country, and that it must be kept out of party politics, is the unanimous opinion of the Western Governors who have been touring through the East.

The Democratic Governors of Oregon and Montana, in talking with Eastern business men, were even more outspoken than the Republican Governors of Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming, in saying that Congress ought at once to correct the glaring evils in the American banking system and make money panics impossible in the future.

Oswald West, the Democratic Governor of Oregon, said that business men of the Far Northwest were almost a unit in favor of a revision of the banking and currency laws along non-partisan lines. He was strongly in favor of a central reserve association and a currency based on the industrial needs of the country.

Governor Eberhart, of Minnesota, criticized some of the details of the year, in Indian service.
